

LIST OF ACTIVITIES of the 6th year medical student in General Practice

Name of student :

Group N<sup>o</sup>

Training from _____ until _____

	student	trainer
The management of general practice
Basic conditions for establishment of general practice
General practice management
Sharing responsibilities between doctor and nurse
Medical records keeping
Other administration in general practice
Financial management of general practice
Health and social care in practice
A wide scale of problems presented in primary care
Primary-secondary care interfaces
Management of common disorders
The management of acute patients
The management of chronic patients
Home visits
Community care and home care
Clinical knowledge and skills
Communications skills
History taking and key problem identification
Physical examination
Clinical assessment and methods used in practice
Referral letters
Prescribing
Blood and other biological material sampling
Parenteral drugs application

This list serves both to trainee and to trainer as an overview of problems and activities which happen in general practice and which should be learned during practical training.

Put crosses in items

Name of the trainer _____

Assoc. prof. Bohumil Seifert, M.D., Ph.D.
Head of the Institute
Institute of General Practice
Charles University in Prague
First Faculty of Medicine